Re: Petition for Rehearing

Case No. 20250135-SC

Dear Deron Brunson:

I am writing in response to your filing of a "Rule 35 Petition for Rehearing," received in the Supreme Court on March 7, 2025. The petition references case number 20250135-SC which is a petition for extraordinary relief. The petition was denied by the Utah Supreme Court on March 5, 2025 on procedural grounds without reaching the merits. Please be advised that the Utah Supreme Court does not accept Petitions for Rehearing unless a published opinion was issued or the matter was resolved on the merits. See Rule 35\(a\)\(1\) of the Utah Rules of Appellate Procedure and Utah Supreme Court Standing Order No. 2.

Your petition also appears to seek reconsideration of a decision made by a single justice. The petition for extraordinary relief and rule 23C motion for expedited review were considered by a three-member panel of the Supreme Court, as evidenced by the notice dated February 25, 2025. The decision of the panel was unanimous.

As clerk, I must refuse your petition for rehearing. It is being returned to you with this letter. Please be advised that no further filings will be accepted in Supreme Court Case No. 20250135-SC.

Respectfully,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Nicole I. Gray", written over the printed name.

Nicole I. Gray
